PIPES, CLUBS, & TOMAHAWKS

The Romance of the American Indian

From war through peace, pipes, clubs, and tomahawks were held by men who were intense in their purpose. Each of these is an embodiment of American history and American art.

You are cordially invited to the Opening Reception, Tuesday, August 13, 5 to 8 pm

Possibly the largest assemblage of exquisite pipes, clubs, and tomahawks ever offered in the United States, this show is an unusual addition to the Southwest art being exhibited in Santa Fe.

THE SPLENDOR OF THE CROW CULTURE

Expressed in highly-prized historic beadwork, the vibrant colors and sharp design of this art bring to us even now the spectacular side of Crow life.

You are cordially invited to the Opening Reception, Tuesday, August 13, 5 to 8 pm

This increasingly rare art is explosive with design, and clearly shows the intuition of the Crow artisans for a sophisticated use of color. Crow art provides satisfactions far beyond its intensely historical nature.
